DESCRIPTION:

“Life’s most persistent and urgent question is, ‘What are you doing for others?’”

As a number of societal, political and economic issues continue to plague the wellbeing of so many US and global citizens, alike, we now find ourselves living in a time in which volunteer work and the act of lending a helping hand to the downtrodden has become critical to the flourishing and overall health of our immediate communities.

In your own words, please explain the importance of community service and what can be done, particularly, to increase volunteer efforts amongst your peers and your classmates. Please provide specific programs and volunteer practices that you would commit to implementing at Alabama State University and the surrounding community.

These should be programs and/or practices that you feel would make an immediate impact to the livelihood of those in need. The essay winner will receive a scholarship award of $1000.00. Once selected, the essay winner and their respective guardian(s) will be contacted via email. Scholarship award will be formally presented to the winning applicant during Homecoming Week, October 2024.

ABOUT THE INITIATIVE:

The 25 Suenu Memorial Scholarship Initiative was founded in 2023 by Alabama State University graduate Bambo Adeshiyan to memorialize the late members of the Adeshiyan and Giwa families, and to encourage the continued academic performance of the students pursuing a degree in the Department of Communications at ASU. The inspiration of the initiative, 25 Suenu, refers to the family's home in Lagos, Nigeria.
